More fun in the Philippines.

When it comes to meetings, conventions, exhibitions, incentives and special events, the Philippines is a destination that delivers both serious business and fun. This beautiful archipelago of 7,107 islands is a major business hub in the Asia-Pacific region with an established track record of hosting outstanding global events. And beyond a business agenda, visitors experience so much more through the rich culture, spectacular sights and vibrancy of one Asia's most unique destinations.

Blessed with a tropical climate that lures visitors all year-round, the Philippines is resplendent with natural and cultural wonders, including five World Heritage-listed sites. It is a truly special destination that will turn every notion you ever had of Asia on its head. The Philippines is at once exotic and international. English is widely spoken, with an American, Spanish or Malay accent, and the local culture is a glorious mix of native and global influences.

When making event site selections, the Philippines offers a wide array of destinations, each rich in attractions. Take your pick from cosmopolitan Manila, historic Cebu, scenic Bohol or the beachside paradises of Boracay and Palawan, plus a host of other excellent business and incentive travel destinations spread out across the islands.

First-class facilities and amenities are more affordable here, thanks to a favorable currency exchange rate. Services are incomparable and always come with a warm smile.

Easily accessible, great value and a wealth of experiences to choose from – you'll wonder how you've missed discovering the Philippines.

Choose the Philippines

Crossroads of the Asia-Pacific

With six international airports forming a gateway to the world, The Philippines' strategic location makes it easily accessible. Many major international airlines fly regularly to the Philippines from the USA.

Choose your adventure

The Philippines offers eight major destinations – Manila, Cebu, Bohol, Boracay, Palawan, Davao, Baguio & Banaue and Vigan & Laoag – to enhance every type of convention, exhibition, incentives, and special event.

Legendary Filipino hospitality

One of the most alluring things about the country is the personal warmth, openness and cheerfulness of the people. Filipinos are renowned as great hosts and possess a high service ethic – it's no wonder they excel in the hospitality and tourism industries, both at home and overseas.

Vibrant business destination

The Philippines is a well-established center of commerce with global appeal. It has one of the most deregulated, trade-oriented economies in Asia. Its status as a business-friendly destination is enhanced by a high-quality and creative labor force, one of the best in the region. English has been solidly entrenched as the language of business and government since the 1930s.

Broad portfolio of industries

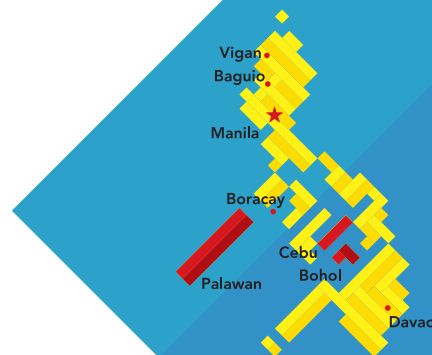

Specialist knowledge and a wealth of unique industries attract a broad spectrum of global associations and attendees. These include aquaculture, agriculture, film animation, health and well-being, rice research and fashion, as well as emerging knowledge-based industries such as software development, engineering design and communications. The Philippines is a leading destination for Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) and information technology services.

Smorgasbord of facilities

A well-established meetings infrastructure provides innumerable options for hosting groups of all sizes, whether it's 15 top sales executives for an incentive event in a boutique resort or 15,000 attendees for an annual convention in a coliseum. Manila alone has eight major venues including the world-class Philippine International Convention Center (PICC), Asia's first convention center.

Choice of accommodation

There's an attractive range of accommodation on offer, whether you seek luxurious treatment or affordable comfort. From good-value international chains to elegant hotels, exclusive boutique properties and luxury resorts, the Philippines has it all.

Exciting pre- and post-event activities

Countless options for pre- and post-meeting activities are here for the taking. Natural and cultural attractions include five World Heritage-listed sites. The Philippines' coastline, which is twice that of the United States, boasts some of the most beautiful beaches in the world. There are championship golf courses, luxury spas, sprawling shopping malls, adventure destinations and the nightlife is one of the liveliest in Asia.

The value-for-money alternative

You'll be pleasantly surprised at how much further your budget will travel in the Philippines. The favorable foreign exchange rate will make you seriously think of bringing your business event to the Philippines.

We invite you to host a unique and memorable event, incentive, conference or exhibition in the Philippines.

Your first point of contact

The Tourism Promotions Board (TPB) is a corporate body attached to the Philippine Department of Tourism. Its MICE and Business Development Unit provides comprehensive information, technical assistance and guidance to meeting planners and incentive travel organizers. In addition, we offer our expertise through the following range of complimentary services:

- Bid preparation

Assisting meeting planners and association executives in the preparation of competitive and highly attractive bid proposals.

- Incentive program planning

Coordinating imaginative and unique incentive experiences and itineraries geared towards an organization's goals.

- Liaison services

Providing clients with a valuable network of contacts both in government and private sectors. The TPB also facilitates clients' needs, such as locating certified Destination Management Companies (DMCs) and reliable suppliers of goods and services, or setting up links with appropriate government agencies.

- Site inspection

Arranging site inspection trips and technical visits to help with planning and decision making.

- Attendance promotion

Assisting in promoting attendance to booked events through the TPB's network of local and overseas offices.

- Airport Reception

Facilitating the arrival of incentive groups, convention and exhibition participants and other guests in coordination with the agencies at the airport.

Manila & Surrounds

Metro Manila is an exciting, colorful and complex metropolis made up of 16 cities and one municipality. It is the political, economic, social, cultural, and recreational hub of the Philippines.

Playing host to the world is nothing new to Manila. From 1565, Manila was instrumental in the galleon trade between the Philippines and Spain, facilitating trade relations between the Americas, Europe, Arabia, China and India.

Today, Manila is a premier business event destination in Asia, thanks to its world-class facilities, a globally oriented business population, and the friendliest, dedicated teams of support professionals.

The Philippine International Convention Center (PICC) is the first of its kind in Asia, and one of the most versatile event arenas in the Asia-Pacific region. It has a multi-level plenary hall, 14 meeting rooms, a fine-dining restaurant and a media center. Within the complex is the 4,000 square meter PICC Forum, a multi-purpose facility ideal for exhibitions and special events. There are at least eight other major convention sites in the metropolis, including the SMX Convention Center, World Trade Center and Megatrade Hall. These are complemented by a variety of luxury hotels situated strategically within the business districts.

Home to nearly 12 million people, Manila has history, style and charm. It boasts a wide range of sightseeing possibilities for groups and offers cosmopolitan cuisine and superb entertainment. In this city that never sleeps, there's a good night out for everyone.

Experience more fun in Manila

- Visit Fort Santiago, San Agustin Church and Casa Manila in the ancient walled city of Intramuros.
- Join Carlos Celdran's walking tour through Intramuros for a gritty and entertaining insight into the city's history. Or relive Manila's glamour and glitz during his 'Livin La Vida Imelda' tour of the Cultural Center of the Philippines. See celdrantours.blogspot.com.
- Stroll along Roxas Boulevard and catch the famous Manila Bay sunset.
- Visit the National Museum to see Juan Luna's monumental painting Spoliarium, a national treasure.
- Get a taste of local bohemian culture at Remedios Circle in Malate.
- Catch a ride in a jeepney to experience flamboyant folk art on wheels.
- Go bar hopping in Malate, Ayala Center, Rockwell or Bonifacio Global City.
- Shop till you drop in the mega malls of Makati, Ortigas and Quezon City.
- Take a calesa (horse-drawn carriage) tour of Binondo, Manila's Chinatown.
- Pick up handicraft bargains in the market under the Quiapo Bridge.
- Visit Marikina, the country's shoe capital, which boasts more than 600 registered shoemakers.
- Take a day trip to scenic Tagaytay or Pagsanjan Falls, or to historic Corregidor Island or Villa Escudero.

How to get here

The Ninoy Aquino International Airport (NAIA) in Manila is the premier gateway. It is served by more than 30 airlines which fly to and from different cities around the world.

Cebu

With its pristine beaches, crystalline waters and affordable luxury resorts, the island province of Cebu is the traveler's fantasy of a tropical paradise come true.

A unique blend of natural beauty, historic sites and urban living, Cebu is never short on appeal. It is the country's oldest city and the seat of Christianity in the Philippines, and it was here that Ferdinand Magellan first set foot in the Philippines, in 1521. Today, it is known as the 'Queen City of the South', and is second only to Manila when it comes to urban buzz.

In contrast to its bustling metropolis and glittering nightlife, the rest of Cebu's 167 islets and islands are lined with serene white sand beaches where one can stare blithely out to sea for hours. Cebu is famous worldwide for its diving grounds, rich in spectacular coral beds and sea life. But for those seeking high adventure, the Crown Regency Hotel & Towers boasts a coaster ride that takes thrill seekers more than 38 stories sky high for a breathtaking view of Cebu City.

The province is also a major business event destination in the Asia-Pacific region thanks to the world-class Cebu International Convention Center (CICC). Close to the Mactan International Airport and ideally located within the business district of Mandue, the CICC is sprawled over nearly three hectares of land. It has a plenary hall, eight meeting rooms and five multi-purpose halls.

Experience more fun in Cebu

- See Magellan's Cross, planted in 1521 by the famous explorer.
- Explore Fort San Pedro, the nucleus of Spanish settlement in the Philippines.
- Visit Casa Gorordo Museum and find out how the genteel Filipinos lived.
- Light joss sticks and have your fortune told at the Taoist Temple.
- Spot amazing bird life at the Olango Wildlife Sanctuary.
- Scuba dive in the coral islands of Mactan, Moalboal, Pescador and Badian, or swim with the whale sharks in Oslob.
- Pack a picnic and trek to the Kawasan Falls in Badian.
- Shop for exotic finds in the markets of Carbon and Taboan.
- Browse the shops in Mandaue for fantastic furniture designs – one of Cebu's specialties.
- Pick up a guitar, ukulele or mandolin made by craftsmen in Mactan.
- Enjoy a drink – and the view – at Blu Bar & Grill, named one of Asia's best bars by Travel + Leisure Asia.

How to get here

Cebu's international airport services daily flights from Asia's key cities. It is an hour's flight from Manila and easily accessible from domestic destinations by land, air and sea.

Boracay

The tiny island of Boracay is one of those places where you can stay happily marooned for a very long time. Known as one of the best beach destinations in the world, Boracay is the quintessential island paradise – dazzling beaches lined with palm trees, splendid sunshine, warm crystalline waters and no shortage of activities on offer.

The ambience is undeniably laid-back and the island dress code is barefoot and informal. During the day, seaside massages under the shade of a coconut tree are a common sight. Luxurious spa treatments are also available in the high end resorts. From dusk to dawn, island life turns into one big party with everyone welcome to join in the fun.

But there is plenty to do other than soaking up the sun on the beach or attending sunset parties. Diversions include windsurfing, sail boating and kayaking. There were 20 dive sites at last count. Horseback riding, trekking and mountain biking are great ways to enjoy scenic rocky cliffs, discover hidden beaches and stumble upon quaint villages.

Experience more fun in Boracay

- Find out why the four kilometer White Beach is one of the most photographed beaches in the world.
- Start the day with a famous fruit shake at Jonah's.
- Take a sunset cruise in a paraw, Boracay's signature sailboat.
- Enjoy a hilot, the traditional Filipino massage, under the shade of a coconut tree on the beach.
- Rent an outrigger or yacht and indulge in a little island hopping.
- Take diving, sailing or windsurfing lessons.
- Ask for 'Mambo Number 5' – a little bit of boating, diving, trekking, biking and golf.
- Trek or mountain bike to the quaint interior villages.
- Sample local favorites such as baby back ribs, chori burger, charbroiled chicken and halo-halo sandwich – best enjoyed on the sand at sunset.
- Witness the annual Paraw Regatta, an international sailboat race featuring native outriggers.
- Take a golf break at the Fairways & Blue Water Country Club.
- Catch the Mardi Gras-style Ati-Atihan Festival in Kalibo in January.

How to get here

Kalibo or Caticlan is less than an hour's flight from Manila. From Kalibo, Boracay is 90 minutes away by bus and a short boat trip; from Caticlan it is 20 minutes by boat.

Palawan

A narrow archipelago of more than 1,780 islands and islets, Palawan is the undisputed final frontier of the Philippines. There's plenty to do in this extraordinary group of islands, but the main activity is simply admiring nature's handiwork.

Palawan's bewitching landscapes include storied lagoons and bays hiding ancient shipwrecks, uncharted mountains, mangrove swamps, hidden pockets of lush forest and deserted islets ringed by kaleidoscopic sea gardens as well as white sand beaches. Palawan is a wildlife haven, where giraffes, zebras and gazelles co-exist with exotic fauna such as the mouse deer, civet and scaly anteater.

Experience more fun in Palawan

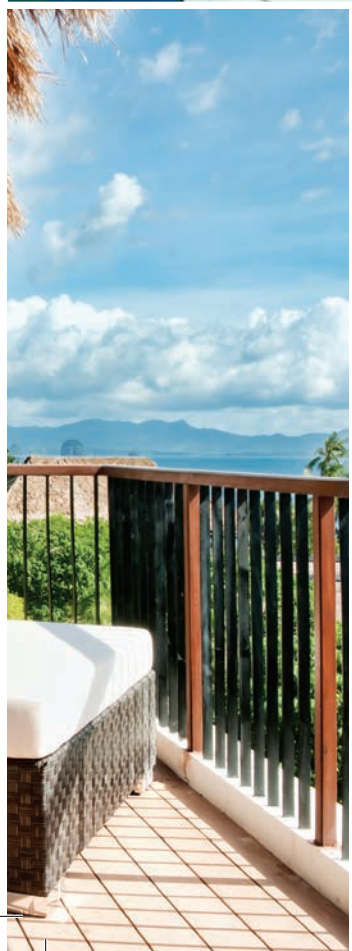

- See the astonishing seascapes of El Nido, one of the country's premier tourist destinations. Take a dawn kayak ride around the limestone formations at sea, swim with the giant jackfish or get dropped off on a private island for a seafood picnic on the sand.
- Watch the birds' nest gatherers at work, scaling cliffs for prized finds.
- Take an unforgettable subterranean river tour at the Puerto Princesa National Park, a World Heritage-listed site.

- Swim, snorkel or dive in one of the islets of Honda Bay.
- Fall under the spell of the seven enchanting lakes of Coron Reefs.

How to get here

The Puerto Princesa airport is served by all domestic airlines, and is just a few minutes from the city. There are daily flights from Manila.

Bohol

Bohol is one of the most beautiful island provinces in the Philippines, yet it is relatively undiscovered by the tourist crowd. Nature has blessed the island with a lush landscape of verdant hills, waterfalls, serene rivers, mangrove forests, undisturbed wildlife, luminous white sand beaches and picturesque islets.

This enigmatic island is one of Asia's finest diving destinations, boasting an undersea panorama of coral gardens vivid with tropical marine life. With more than a hundred caves in its mountainous interior, Bohol is ideal for spelunkers and trekkers. For higher pursuits, there's ziplining and an open-air cable ride at the Loboc Ecotourism Adventure Park.

Bohol is also a historical and cultural destination. Its 16th century watchtowers and ancient coral-stone churches with gilded altars and priceless icons are amazing attractions. One hidden gem is the centuries-old Spanish fort at Pamilacan Island, an eco-tourism destination that's gaining a reputation for its dolphin and whale-watching tours and superb diving sites.

Experience more fun in Bohol

- Marvel at the unique panorama of over 1,200 'Chocolate Hills', lush green in wet season, chocolate brown in dry.
- Enjoy a fascinating boat ride in the serene waters of Loboc River.
- Visit the Philippine Tarsier and Wildlife Sanctuary and get up close to the rare and tiny tarsier – the smallest primate in the world.
- Bask in the sun on the white sand beaches of Bungan, Mantatao or Panglao.
- Book a whale watching expedition from beautiful Balicasag Island.
- Swim with a passing school of dolphins in Cabilao.
- Catch a performance of the world famous Loboc Children's Choir.
- Check out the bamboo bridge in Candijay Mangrove Forest.

How to get here

Flights to and from Tagbilaran to Manila take around one hour and 15 minutes. Domestic and budget carriers have daily flights. Fast ferries operate between Bohol and Cebu regularly.

Baguio & Banaue

For centuries, the northern mountain provinces of the Philippines have lured those escaping the heat of the lowlands – the cool climes, pine-clad hills and verdant valleys of Baguio and Banaue present a magical change of scenery.

Baguio City, the summer capital of the Philippines, is nestled on a plateau 1,400 meters above sea level. It is the gateway to all the prime attractions in the Cordillera mountains: the fruit and flower farms of La Trinidad, the Asin hot springs, the mummies of Kabayan and the Malabisin underground river, to name a few.

Further north is Banaue, tucked in rugged terrain brimming with spectacular scenery – breathtaking mountain ranges, ancient pine forests, tumbling waterfalls and ferny glades.

Carved out of the mountainsides by the Ifugao tribe folk more than 2,000 years ago is the World Heritage-listed Banaue Rice Terraces. Banaue is a popular base for adventurous forays into Ifugao country, idyllic Sagada and mountainous Bontoc.

Experience more fun in Baguio & Banaue

- Tee off at the Camp John Hay Golf Club in Baguio City, designed by Jack Nicklaus.
- Visit the Easter Weaving School and watch tribal women transform rainbow-colored threads into exquisite cloth.
- Jostle with the locals at the lively Baguio market, where the best indigenous craft and souvenirs can be found.
- Gaze at the spectacular World Heritage-listed Banaue Rice Terraces, layered rice paddies that form a giant stairway to the sky.
- Discover the picturesque town of Sagada, popular with Manila's bohemian crowd
- Be mystified by the centuries-old mummies of Bontoc, some still in their ancient log caskets.
- In Batad, watch the jaw-dropping sunrise over the rice terraces, then enjoy a picnic lunch and bracing dip at the Tappiya Falls.

How to get here

Baguio is a 4-5 hour drive from Manila by car and 6 hours by bus. Banaue can be reached by air with a 45-minute chartered flight from Manila. Tourist coaches go to Banaue directly from Manila and Baguio City.

Vigan & Laoag

The historic town of Vigan, 408 kilometers northwest of Manila, has a 16th century townscape so well preserved and unique that it has been listed as a World Heritage site.

A place where time stands still, Vigan is famous for its historic houses, cobbled streets, horse-drawn carriages, and its unique architecture and culture that fuses Philippine, Chinese and European influences.

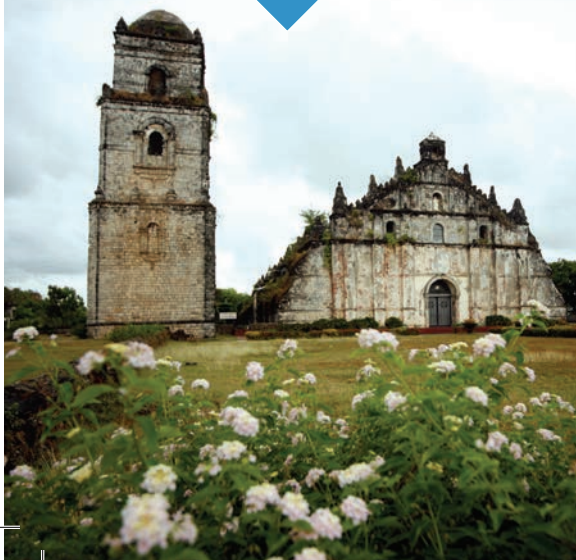

Also in Northern Luzon, 488 kilometers from Manila, is the bustling city of Laoag. Strewn with ancient landmarks, its old-world charm is renowned. Laoag is also the gateway to the region's famous sand dunes and beaches.

Experience more fun in Vigan & Laoag

- Visit Vigan's Calle Crisologo and its well-preserved ancestral homes.
- Watch local artisans keep the ancient crafts of abel weaving, damili (terracotta), and burnay (earthenware) alive.
- Sample mouth-watering rice cakes and other delicacies of San Jose in Vigan.
- Marvel at the Kapurpurawan rock formation and the Bojeador lighthouse, both in Burgos.
- Go off-roading on the sand dunes of La Paz.
- Learn about Saint William the Hermit while exploring the cathedral built in his honor in 1612.
- Check out the Bangui Windmills, said to be the biggest in Southeast Asia.
- In Laoag, make sure you sample longganisa (local sausage), empanada (savory pies) and pinakbet (mixed vegetables in anchovy sauce).
- Tee off at the Fort Ilocandia Country Club.
- Visit the Museo Ilocos Norte, a unique heritage museum housed in a restored tobacco factory.

How to get here

It's a 45-minute flight from Manila to Laoag International Airport. Vigan is a 1 ½ hour drive from Laoag.

Davao

Davao's expansive landscape is one of the most picturesque in the Philippines. Exotic fruit plantations and orchid farms cover volcano-fed hills and valleys. Virgin forests nurture rare wildlife. Coral islands lie on mirror-flat water, and Mt. Apo, the country's highest peak, magnificently lords over the hinterland.

Just as enchanting is its community, a harmonious tapestry woven from the diverse cultural threads of its people. In Davao, the contemporary fuses with the traditional as migrant settlers from all over the country co-exist peacefully with numerous ethnic tribes who continue to live as they did centuries ago.

Experience more fun in Davao

- Discover exotic native tribes – the Manobos, B'laan and Bagobos.
- See the skilled mat weavers of Sinawilan at work.
- Marvel at the intricate creations of the T'boli handloomers.
- At Hondo or Taluksangay, head out to sea in a colorful vinta – a traditional Filipino sail boat.
- Catch the week-long Kadayawan sa Dabaw festival in August, celebrating the fruit and flower harvest.
- Climb Mount Apo, the country's tallest mountain.
- Visit a banana or pineapple plantation or an orchid farm.
- Sample the local delicacy – grilled tuna in native sauce.
- Shop for brassware, ethnic trinkets and shellcraft.
- Visit the Philippine Eagle Center – home of eagle conservation
- Play golf in an exotic new setting such as a lush fruit estate or coconut plantation.

How to get here

Domestic carriers run regular daily flights from Manila to Davao (one hour and 35 minutes).

Essential Information

Entry Regulations

Travel to the Philippines for business and tourism is allowed without visas for a stay not exceeding twenty-one (21) days, provided visitors hold valid tickets for their return journey to port of origin or next port of destination and their passports are valid for a period of at least six (6) months beyond the contemplated period of stay. For complete details visit www.dfa.gov.ph.

Airports

The Philippines has six international airports, one in each of the key cities of Manila, Angeles, Davao, Cebu, Aklan and Iloilo.

Airport Fees

PhP 550 for international departure and PhP 200 for local departure, paid in Philippine pesos only.

Climate

January to May is the best time to visit the country. March to May is hot and dry, June to October is rainy and November to February is cool. Average temperature is 78°F/25°C to 90°F/32°C; average humidity is 77%.

Language

Filipino is the national language. English is the business language and spoken widely. Approximately 176 languages and dialects are spoken in the country.

Foreign Exchange Regulations

Visitors carrying more than US$ 3,000 are to declare the amount at the Central Bank of the Philippines counter situated at the Customs area.

Foreign currency taken out upon departure must not exceed the amount brought in. Departing passengers are not allowed to bring out more than PhP 10,000 in local currency.

Health Regulations

A certificate of vaccination against yellow fever is required for travelers coming from infected areas.

The Philippines is free from epidemics such as bird flu and foot-and-mouth disease.

Currency

The unit of currency is the Philippine peso, divided into 100 centavos.

Most foreign currencies can be easily exchanged at banks, hotels, and authorized foreign exchange dealers. Outside Manila, payment with Philippine pesos is preferred. Major credit cards are accepted in most hotels, resorts, shops and restaurants.

Local Transport

Metered and fixed rate taxis are widely available in key cities. Car and coach hires are available in major cities. Jeepneys and buses are inexpensive ways of getting around most places.

What to Wear

Light and casual clothes are recommended. Warmer garments are needed for mountain regions. When visiting churches and temples, propriety dictates that shorts and scanty clothing be avoided.

Timezone

GMT plus 8 hours.

Electricity

220 volts, A.C. 60 cycles. Most hotels have 110 volt outlets.

Business Hours

Private and government offices are open either from 8 am to 5 pm or from 9 am to 6 pm, Mondays to Fridays. Most shopping hubs are open from 10 am to 8 pm daily. There are 24-hour convenience stores and chemists. Banks are open from 9 am to 3 pm, Mondays to Fridays.

Tipping

Tipping is expected for many services; the standard is 10% of the bill. It's optional on bills that already include a 10% service charge.
